An English aerial squadron dropped bombs on Brussels, killing 13 Belgians, wounding 38, and destroying 15 houses. Bucharest, the Roumanian capital, is on fire as a result of the frequent German air raids. The war office announced that German flyers who Wednesday dropped "a great number of bombs" on the city, found that it was "still burning as the result of previous attacks."

Amid a glare of red fire and the blare of trumpets, Daniel S. Blackman, president of the Pitman Episcopal Ushers' Union at Pitman, N. J., was compelled to wheel his bride about the streets of the town in a pushcart at the head of a big parade of serenaders. A large crowd of serenaders descended upon the home of the newly married couple bearing banners, transparencies and all manner of noise making instruments.

With a tin can containing $12,000 and papers of value representing the savings of a lifetime clutched tightly in his left hand, Arunah Lewis, aged 85, a hermit who for the last 20 years has lived alone near a farm eight miles from Kankakee, Ill., lies at the point of death at a neighboring home suffering from a stroke of paralysis.

Greece can put an army of between 200,000 and 225,000 men in the field. The country has compulsory military training, and most of her soldiers are veterans, having served in the two Balkan wars. Six battleships, one battle cruiser and two armored cruisers form the nucleus of the Greek navy, which has been reorganized by the British navy. At present there are numerous British naval officers serving on Greek ships.

An infuriated mob took two colored men from the Hopenwald, Tenn., jail yesterday and shot them to death. The men were accused of murdering

"Bud" Burns at Gardensburg last Saturday night. They had been removed to the Hopenwald jail for safe keeping. After seizing their prisoners the mob marched them a short distance from the town, lined them up against a tree, and a dozen marksmen did the rest.

Thirteen persons were killed and more than 25 injured, several probably fatally, late last Sunday night when a switch engine pushing two freight cars crushed into a crowded trolley car at Detroit, Mich. There were more than 90 persons in the street car, many of them returning from the theaters.

Senator James P. Clarke, of Arkansas, president pro tempore of the United States Senate, died in Little Rock, Sunday afternoon. Senator Clarke suffered a stroke of apoplexy Friday and never regained consciousness. Senator Clarke was born at Yazoo City, Miss., August 18, 1851. He was graduate from the law department of the University of Virginia.

Three persons were instantly killed and four seriously injured when an automobile in which they were riding was struck by a train on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton road at Overpeck Crossing, 5 miles north of Hamilton, Ohio Sunday.

Dragged at midnight to the spot where her husband's skeleton had been unearthed, Mrs. William Travis, 38, hysterically maintained that neither she nor Clarence Myers, 21, who also is held, was guilty of his murder at Grant, Mich. Travis disappeared a year ago Mrs. Travis said he had deserted her. Then she and Myers, who had been employed on the farm, moved to Corbin, Mich., where they were arrested.

You are hereby notified that I have fixed upon Tuesday November 14th, 1916, at 10 o'clock A. M. at my office near the County Court House, at Fort Myer Heights, Virginia, as the time and place, when and where, I shall proceed to execute the decree rendered by the Circuit Court of the County of Alexandria, Virginia, on the 26th day of September, 1916, in the Chancery cause of W. T. Gallier and Brother, Incorporated vs. Alan P. Hume et al; whereby I am required to ascertain and report:

First—The taxes, all mechanics liens and other liens, and the respective amounts thereof, upon the respective properties set forth and described in the bill of complaint, and the priorities existing between the same. In doing so, the said commissioner shall report separately the liens and the respective amounts thereof against each of the respective properties described in the Bill, and the names of the holders of the same.

Second—The respective dates upon which each of said buildings in the bill and proceedings mentioned, was completed, or the work thereon otherwise terminated.

Third—Whether or not the rents and profits from the said properties or any of them, will pay off and discharge the respective liens within five (5) years.

Fourth—How much of the land with each of the said respective properties mentioned and described in the bill is necessary for the convenient use and enjoyment of the said respective buildings.

Fifth—What amount will constitute a reasonable compensation to be allowed by the Court to complainant's counsel for instituting and conducting this suit.

Sixth—To state and settle any accounts that may be necessary between the parties to this suit.

Seventh—The said Commissioner in making his report shall consider, not only the evidence already taken, including that embraced in the stipulations of counsel, but shall take and consider any further evidence which may be adduced by any party in interest.

Eighth—Any other matter or thing pertinent to the issues in this cause, or which may be required by any party hereto.

This notice is published in pursuance of the decree of the said Court in said cause entered on the 26th day of September, 1916, which provides that the publication of this notice once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, shall be equivalent to personal service of such notice upon all parties claiming to have liens upon the property in the bill and proceedings mentioned, or having an interest therein.

At which time and place you are required to attend. Given under my hand as Commissioner in Chancery of said Court on the day and year next aforesaid.

HARRY R. THOMAS, Commissioner.

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA.

In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of the City of Alexandria, on the 28th day of August, 1916, Cecelia Burke, widow, sued for herself and all other creditors of Ailsy Monday, deceased, to the costs and expenses of this suit.
